

Scouting BSA Organizational Chart

National Council: Examples of Responsibilities

- Responsible for all major policy decisions regarding the Scouting program (chartering, training programs, merit badges and rank advancement)
- Repository for all Scouting data (membership, finances, advancement)
- Maintains national High-Adventure bases such as Philmont and Seabase

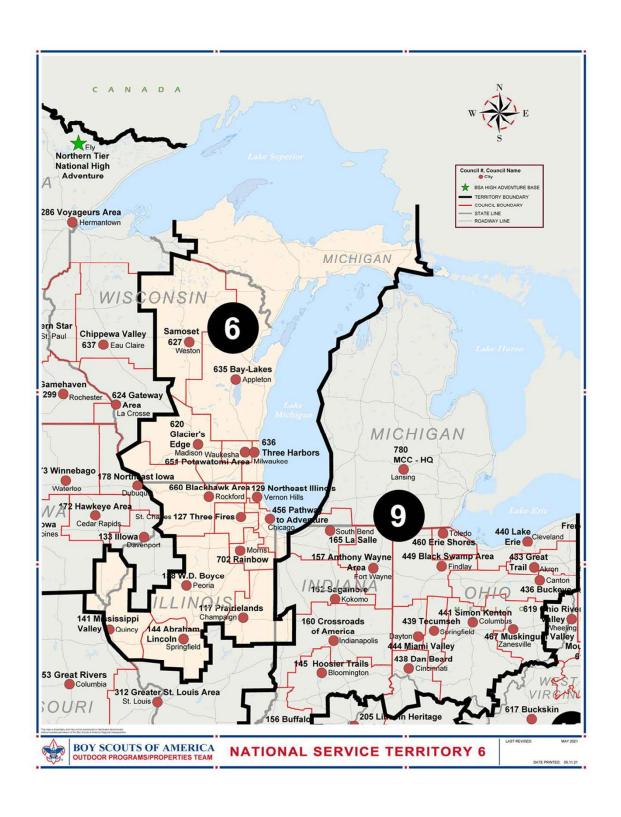

Scouting BSA Regions (Central)

Scouting BSA Regional Committees: Examples of Responsibilities

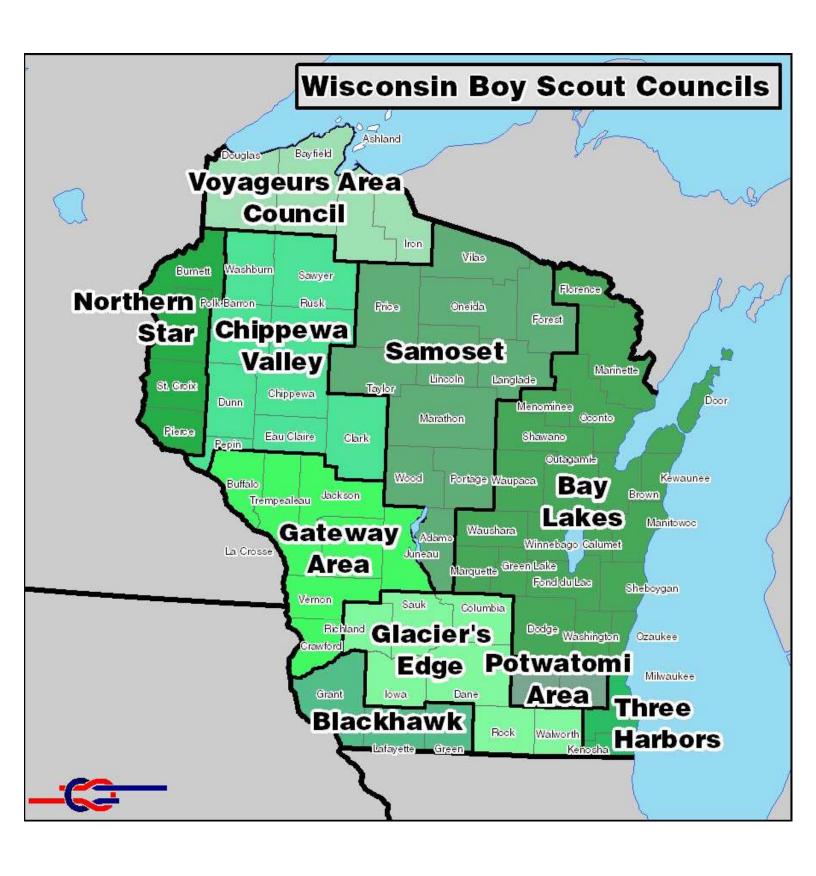

- Communicates national policies, programs, and information to local councils within each region
- Plans events and activities in the region
- Maintains established standards, supports local councils, and trains volunteers and professionals

National Service Territory #6

National Service Territory: Examples of Responsibilities

- Helps councils ensure Scout safety and youth protection
- Assists councils in strengthening membership
- Ensures councils achieve national performance standards

Local Council (Glaciers Edge): Examples of Responsibilities

- Registers units and council personnel; provides leadership training
- Provides facilities for summer camp and outdoor activities
- Ensures the integrity of the merit badge requirements, supervises advancement in Scouting, and ensures standards in Scout policies

District (Mohawk): Examples of Responsibilities

- Ensures the growth and success of Scouting units
- Provides direct coaching and consultation to a unit
- Approves Merit Badge Counselors

Chartering Organization (Madison West Lions Club): Examples of Responsibilities

- Receives a national charter to use the Scouting program
- Selects the Scoutmaster, appoints the Committee Chair, and approves all adult leadership
- Responsible for running the Scouting unit

Troop 420: Structure of Adult Leadership and Examples of Responsibilities

Troop Committee

- Recruitment
- Financials
- High Adventure

Scout Leadership Group

- First-year scouting program
- Merit Badges
- Camping Equipment